Morris Creek Community

Fair A Success

Saturday, October 8th, the community of Morris Creek held their first Community Fair. Through the efforts of the school teacher, the County Agent and the good folks of Morris Creek, an all day program was worked out. Though the weather was cold, a large crowd was present. The pupils entertained the crowd in the morning by giving all sorts of school work prepared by them and their teacher. In the afternoon the Flag they won in the contest at the County Fair was presented to them by Mr. A. T. Stewart, of Stanton. The Boy Scouts, under the leadership of Mr. L. O. Knox, entertained with a good many stunts, then games of all sorts were played both by young and old. Every body had a good time. Morris Creek is growing in more ways than one. Too much credit can not be given to their school teacher, Miss Esther Lutes. She is doing all she can with the help of the community to make this the best community in Powell County. Other communities holding Community Fairs have been: Rosslyn, Waukesha and Natural Bridge. The same can be said of these. With fairs like these held in each school district, what kind of a County Fair could Powell County have in 1922? The County Agent and Superintendent of Schools can only assist in these things, it's up to the people in the county. These communities named have shown their willingness to do their part. Let every community do its part next year.

Surprise Wedding

Mr. Edmon Burgher and Miss Ethel Johnson, daughter of Wm. Johnson, surprised their friends Monday morning by getting married at the home of the bride's parents in time to take the early train for a week's honeymoon. The groom is manager of the Clay City Garage and is connected with the Times force. The bride is employed as book keeper in the Brodhead Garrett office. The nuptial knot was tied by Elder B. S. Burgher, grandfather of the groom.

The Price of New Corn

New corn is quoted as selling in Lexington for $2.50 per barrel. This is the lowest price for corn in a number of years, and too in the face of a very short crop. The Times has not heard of any new corn sales in this county, but feel sure it will not sell here for less than $2.50 if so low.

Typhoid Patients Better

The two children of John Adams whose illness of typhoid fever were noted in these columns last week are improving very nicely now.

Protracted Services

Eld. J. T. Turpin will begin protracted services with the church at Powell's Valley the fifth Sunday in October.

Our Road the Best

Strangers coming into our town flatter us by telling us our road from Clay City to the Clark county line is the best they saw in coming for long distances and other states. Of course it is a good road, and we are proud of it, and want more and want it fast. Lend a helping hand, words of agitation, and a cash interest wherever needed and we will finally get there.

The Rise and Fall of it

The freight on veal calves has been raised from three to six dollars from here to Cincinnati. The price of these same calves has fallen from 20 cents per pound in market to 10 cents. All within the last two years. A favorable outlook for the farmer—who retired a short time ago to buy out the bankrupt farmer who held out and took our leaders seriously by increasing the products of the farm.

Tax Commissioner's Office to Close

The Tax Commissioner's office will be closed at Stanton October 31st. It is the duty of every tax-payer to go to the county seat and give in his list. The time to do this is from July 1st to Oct. 31st. This is time enough to give every one an opportunity to be assessed, and to give further trouble by delay is justly earning a penalty.

More Road Work Begun

Charlie Anderson, for the county, has begun cutting down the old Clay City hill, across from town. This is one of the hardest hills to pull in the county. The grade will be improved 60%, which, when finished, will make an easy pull. The Times is for it and all other road work in the county.

Planing Mill Starts Up

The Brodhead Garrett planing mill started up yesterday morning to run out some special orders. The tobacco selling season is most here when hogheads will be in demand, and it is hoped the hoghead factory, in connection with the planing mill, can be kept going for several weeks at least.

The Scott Sale

Owing to unsatisfactory bids Saturday at the John Scott sale, it was brought to a close after thirteen shotes were sold at $3.50 per head, and five lambs at $3.90 each. Mr. Scott later sold 21 ewes to C. C. Daniel at seven dollars per head. He also sold some of the cattle.

Shale Man Locates Here

J. H. Rudisill, of Chillicothe, Ohio, has located in Clay City. Mr. Rudisill is connected with the Devon Shale Oil Company and is here to have charge of the business when the company gets ready for operations.

Mrs. J. R. Nelson is visiting relatives at Newport and Alexander, Ky.

October Crop Report

With the growing season almost ended, except for very late tobacco and a small amount of late corn that is now maturing, Kentucky's crop conditions now indicate the production of approximately 89,324,000 bushels of corn compared to 100,650,000 bushels last year, and 837,068,000 pounds of tobacco compared to 467,500,000 pounds produced in 1920. The United States entire tobacco crop this year is now estimated at 991,564,000 pounds compared to 1,508,064,000 pounds last year, or about 34 percent decrease.

These estimates have been issued at Louisville and Frankfort by Kentucky representatives of the U. S. Bureau of Markets and Crop Estimates, and State Commissioner of Agriculture. The following estimates of other crops produced in Kentucky this year, with comparisons with 1920 crops, were issued at the same time; oats 6,574,000 bushels compared to 8,225,000 bushels in 1920; barley 96,000 bushels compared to 112,000 bushels last year; potatoes 3,775,000 bushels compared to 6,435,000 bushels last year; sweet potatoes 1,769,000 bushels compared to 1,896,000; sorghum molasses 4,334,000 gallons compared to 4,845,000 gallons; clover seed 30,000 bushels compared to 52,000 bushels; apples 1,215,000 bushels compared to 5,780,000 bushels last year; and pears 29,000 bushels compared to 308,000 bushels produced last year.

"The Klu Klux Klan"

Recently there has been organized in the South a society which by the way of burlesque called itself "The Klu Klux Klan." The order was a 100 per cent American organization designed to protect the home and all that we, the common people, believe in. This order is now being investigated at Washington, thinking doubtless that the name implies what it does not.

Has Typhoid Fever

Robert Mackey, youngest son, of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Mackey, is seriously ill of typhoid fever at their home in this city. Dr. Broaddus, of Irvine, an uncle of the boy was here Tuesday to see him.

Wallace--Winburn

A wedding of interest here was the marriage of Miss Fannie Belle Winburn to Warren D. Wallace, of Frankfort, Ky. It came as a surprise to many and was quietly solemnized last Wednesday afternoon in Lexington at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. D. Clay Lilly, pastor of the Presbyterian church. Later in the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Wallace left for a bridal trip. Upon their return they will be at home with the groom's parents Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Fire losses for the first eight months of 1921 reached the alarming total of $224,111,050, largely in excess of the figures of a year ago, and nearly fifty millions more than the first eight months of 1919. The excessive losses are explained as due to the general business depression. It is a sad commentary on American business honesty, says the Journal of Commerce, that fire losses invariably increase when business is depressed.

Resolutions

We, the people of Elkatawa, do greatly appreciate every effort put forth by our departing pastor, Rev. L. F. Mann, during his stay here to lead the people of this community and surrounding county into paths of Christian living.

During these thirteen years of sweet fellowship together we have come to love both him and his wife as family friends.

We heartily approve of the earnest and able instruction which both the pastor and his wife have so forcibly impressed upon the youth of this community. Furthermore, we sincerely hope that this instruction will find noble hearts with ample space in which to germinate for the coming generation.

We feel that this community has been greatly benefitted on account of their presence among us. We feel so greatly indebted to those people for the noble and upright principles of right living which they have instilled in our community.

As we turn gently to draw a sigh of relief while mourning the loss of these useful people, we think we can hear the voices of some of these beautiful boys and girls, rising up in the distant ages to resound a beautiful echo of the influence these people have left.

There are no two people that we feel we would miss any more than these; there are none we love more dearly; there are none more beloved; there are none whose friendships are more elastic and comforting; there are none whose courage is so strong and whose ambition is so unconquerable and invincible.

Now that the time has come when by the will of providence, we shall have to separate, we prayerfully, hopefully, earnestly and sincerely wish to extend the hand of fellowship to our departing friends. As we all know that the shadow of death must in the course of nature, soon gather around us, we hope for them a happy hour in which to wrap the drapery of their couch about them and lie down to pleasant dreams.

Feeding Plans Made NowInsure More Winter Eggs

Despite the fact that winter is still some distance in the future it is not too early for poultrymen to begin preparations now for careful feeding of the flock in order to increase egg production during that season, poultry specialists say. The purchase of feeds and the planning and mixing of rations within the next few weeks will make it possible to give the hens a winter egg-producing ration early in November and thus give them an early start toward keeping the egg basket full during the cold months of the year. Approximately three-fourths of the Kentucky hens do not produce the maximum number of eggs largely because they are improperly fed during the winter, poultrymen at the College of Agriculture say.

Feeding suggestions made in Circular No. 66 issued by the extension division of the college call attention to the fact that no one ration will fit all conditions found on the average farm. The cheapness and availability of the feeds should be considered, the publication states. Ready-mixed poultry mashes are satisfactory and if readily available and not too high priced may be used with good results. If corn and corn meal are the only available feeds a dry mash of three parts of corn meal and two parts of meat scraps or tankage should be fed with the whole, or cracked corn. In this case the birds should be made to consume twice as much grain as mash by weight. Buttermilk or sour skim milk if available may replace the mash entirely in the laying ration. One gallon of either of these is sufficient for 40 hens a day, the poultrymen say.

A grain ration which has given good results as the college farm is composed of 40 pounds or 24 quarts of cracked corn, 20 pounds or 20 quarts of oats and 40 pounds or 21 quarts of wheat. Another is made up of 70 pounds or 42 quarts of cracked corn and 30 pounds or 30 quarts of oats.

A mash composed of 200 pounds of shipstuff which is a mill run wheat feed, 100 pounds of corn meal, 100 pounds of ground oats and 100 pounds of meat scrap or tankage has been found to be a good one to feed with either of the grain rations suggested. Another is composed of 250 pounds of shipstuff, 150 pounds of corn meal and 100 pounds of meat scrap while a third may be made of 400 pounds of shipstuff and 100 pounds of tankage or meat scrap. This last one is coarser than the first and is not eaten as readily by the birds. Detailed feeding suggestions are contained in Circular No. 66 which may be obtained free by writing the Experiment Station, Lexington.

Veteran Bureau Clean-up Squad

Will be in Beattyville from Thursday October 20th through Thursday November 3rd, for the purpose of advising and adjusting ex-service men's claims against the government. The Veteran Bureau is a combination of the U. S. Public Health Service, The Federal Board of Vocational Training and the Bureau of War Risk Insurance. Colonel C. R. Forbes director of the Bureau has organized a "Clean-up Squad" for each State, consisting of Medical examiners and advisers, compensation and contact examiners, representatives of the Vocational Training Board and a State Representative of the American Legion and one of the American Red Cross. The purpose of the "Clean up Squad" is to advise and to adjust ex-service men's claims against the government, including compensation, medical aid, hospital treatment, Vocational training etc. Captain William Coffin manager of District No. 7 comprising Kentucky, Ohio and Indiana is particularly anxious that all the old claims be adjusted and as many of the new ones that will report. There are many claims that are still pending, on account of lack of evidence to connect the disability with the service. All claims whether old or new reporting to the squad in Beattyville will be considered. All ex-service men with claims, or feel that they have a claim from Lee, Powell, Estill, Owsley and Wolfe counties should report to the squad in Beattyville.

The citizens of the different counties are urged to co-operate by informing the needy ex-service man of the coming campaign and to urge them to report to the squad.

It is necessary that each claimant bring with him his discharge and any correspondence in regard to such claim. It is available that the men who intend to report, first get in touch with the nearest Red Cross or Legion Post for further information.

It is now up to the ex-service man and if you feel that you have a claim against the government you should report to the squad while it is in Beattyville.

Friday, Oct. 21st, will be set aside as Powell county day and we urge Powell county men to report on that day, however Powell cases will be considered any day of the campaign.

Back Hurt?

When the kidneys do not properly do their work or purify the blood stream, waste products and poisonous acids remain in the system and cause backache, rheumatic pains, lumbago, sore muscles, swollen joints, stiffness, lame back and similar symptoms.

Foley Kidney Pills

regulate and restore the healthy, normal action of kidneys and bladder, bringing clean blood and better health, with freedom from aches and pains.

J. George Hudgins, Bennington, Vt., writes: "Last fall I was attacked with lumbago and suffered great agony. I had a severe pain in my back and times could not dress or undress myself. I was advised to take Foley Kidney Pills for my trouble. After taking them for a few days the pain in my back left me and I have not had any lumbago since that time, although that was months ago. Interesting Experience of a Texas Lady Who Declares That if More Women Knew About Cardui They Would Be Spared Much Sickness and Worry.

Navasota, Texas.—Mrs. W. M. Peden, of this place, relates the following interesting account of how she recovered her strength, having realized that she was actually losing her health:

"Health is the greatest thing in the world, and when you feel that gradually slipping away from you, you certainly sit up and take notice. That is what I did some time ago when I found myself in a very nervous, run-down condition of health. I was so tired and felt so lifeless I could hardly go at all.

"I was just no account for work. I would get a bucket of water and would feel so weak I would have to set it down before I felt like I could lift it to the shelf. In this condition, of course, to do even my housework was a task almost impossible to accomplish.

"I was . . . nervous and easily upset.

I couldn't rest well at night and was . . . just lifeless.

"I heard of Cardui and after reading I decided I had some female trouble that was pulling me down. I sent for Cardui and began it . . .

"In a very short while after I began the Cardui Home Treatment I saw an improvement and it wasn't long until I was all right—good appetite, splendid rest, and much stronger so that I easily did my house work.

"Later I took a bottle of Cardui as a tonic. I can recommend Cardui and gladly do so, for if more women knew, it would save a great deal of worry and sickness."

The enthusiastic praise of thousands of other women who have found Cardui helpful should convince you that it is worth trying. All druggists sell it.

On October the 4th the first frost came here and all the late vegetables were killed.

Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Lovell, of Leaven, were guests at Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Bertram's Sunday.

Little Hazel Bertram, who was on the sick list last week, am glad to report much improved.

We would like to hear from Vaughn's Mill and Slade, but I guess they are too busy to write.

Mr. and Mrs. Ova Brewer, of Wolfe county, have recently moved to the Mollie Lynns' lease where he is employed.

We are glad to say oil has gone up, on the fifth it was $1.25 and now it is $1.05. That sounds better to all the people.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hanes, of Fixer, entertained quite a number of people Sunday night with a singing. All report a nice time.

SPOUT SPRING

Marion McKinney is moving this week to Irvine.

The light frosts have done no damage in this community so far.

Mrs. Belle Burgher is spending a few days this week with her sister, Mrs. Madge Lewis, at Winchester.

Serious Corn Infection

The prosperity of the corn belt along Lake Erie is threatened, according to L. J. Tabor, Ohio Director of Agriculture, upon the return of thirty American entomologists from Canada, where they went to study the ravages of the European corn borer.

Taken by Canadian officials to fields where two years ago the borer was unknown, the party saw fields of sweet corn where 100 per cent of the stalks were riddled, and flint corn where not an ear was fit to harvest.

Inquisitive people are seldom satisfied with what they learn. They always imagine that the pump didn't work freely.

After Effect of Scarlet Fever

"As an after effect of scarlet fever," writes Mrs. J. McCullough, 236 Snyder St., Easton, Pa., "my throat was always dry and I had a tickling cough. One bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar gave me relief." Checks coughs, colds, croup; stops tickling in throat and bronchial irritations. —Sherman Robbins & Sons local agents.
